Numb. 8839.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 8, to Tuesday April 11, 1749.

St. James's, April 11.

THE following Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Strange, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, aſſembled at the Aſſizes holden at Lancaſter, in and for the ſaid County, on Monday the 20th Day of March 1748, together with the Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, embrace this firſt Opportunity of approaching your Majeſty with our moſt hearty Congratulations on your ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions. The Deliverance of your Sacred Perſon from the Dangers it has been expoſed to, heightens our Joy on this happy Event; and the Preſervation of a Life ſo inſtrumental to publick Happineſs, will warm, with Gratitude to Heaven, each Breaſt, that is not dead to every generous Impreſſion, or a Stranger to publick Good. We cannot omit this Opportunity to congratulate your Majeſty likewiſe on the Birth of the young Princeſs. It muſt give great Pleaſure to every true Engliſhman and ſound Proteſtant, to ſee the Encreaſe of a Family, which, under God, is the chief Support of the Proteſtant Cauſe, and the Engliſh Liberties.

As your Majeſty entred into the late War from a Principle of Juſtice, to aſſert the Rights of an innocent though injured, and to vindicate the Honour of a brave but inſulted People; ſo your Firmneſs in the Conduct of it muſt be extremely pleaſing to a martial Nation, and worthy the Majeſty of a Britiſh King, deſcended from a Race of Anceſtors, ever diſtinguiſhed for a generous Contempt of Death in Defence of Truth and Liberty.

To delight in War is a Symptom of a cruel and weak Mind: But your Majeſty has given a ſignal Proof of Humanity and univerſal Benevolence (undiſputed Marks of true Greatneſs of Soul) in putting a Stop to the Effuſion of human Blood, and reſtoring Peace to the moſt conſiderable Part of Mankind. This ſhews your Majeſty to be a Friend to Man, as well as a true Father of your People, and entitles you to the Eſteem and Veneration of all who wiſh well to their Fellow Creatures in general, or to the Wealth and Commerce, to the Peace and Proſperity of Britons in particular.

The Bleſſings continued to theſe Kingdoms under your Majeſty's Reign, in the Preſervation and undiſturbed Enjoyment of every Civil and Religious Right, muſt convince all reaſonable Men, that, both in Peace and War, the Good of your Subjects has been the conſtant Object of your Attention, and the Laws the invariable Rule and Meaſure of your Actions.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy the unrival'd Pleaſure that muſt ariſe from the Conſciouſneſs of having, with unwearied Aſſiduity, laboured for the Happineſs of your People, and ſucceeded! and may every Subject make a juſt and ſuitable Return, by a faithful and undiſſembled Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family, and by a quiet and peaceable Submiſſion to your mild and legal Government.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Principal Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Okehampton in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Pitt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Principal Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Principal Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, in Common Council aſſembled, do, in the moſt ſincere Manner, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Return to England.

As we are very ſenſible of the great Weight and Efficacy your Majeſty's Endeavours have been attended with, in procuring the general Tranquility, ſo we ſhould think ourſelves very ungrateful, if we did not expreſs the juſt Senſe we retain of them, by returning your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for this great Event; and at the ſame Time aſſuring your Majeſty of the ſteady Attachment we bear to your Royal Perſon and Government.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and when the Almighty pleaſes to take you to Himſelf, may the Britiſh Crown deſcend to your Royal Offspring till Time ſhall be no more.

Thoſe are the real Sentiments which warm our zealous Breaſts: And, in Teſtimony thereof, we have hereunto cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed, this Third Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty eight.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Baptiſt Leveſon Gower, Eſq; and the Right Hon. the Lord Parker, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme, in the County of Stafford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon her Royal Highneſs's ſafe Delivery of a Princeſs; and to return you our moſt hearty Thanks for your unwearied Endeavours in procuring to this Nation the invaluable Bleſſing of an honourable, and (we hope) a laſting Peace.

We cannot too much admire your Majeſty's Wiſdom, Goodneſs and Conduct, in putting ſo ſeaſonable an End to the Calamities of War, in reconciling ſo many jarring Intereſts, and eſtabliſhing the great Work of Peace, with the Concurrence and to the Satisfaction of all your Majeſty's Allies.

That your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Family may, to the lateſt of Time, reign over a dutiful, loyal and free People; and that all your Subjects, being with us truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, may faithfully ſerve you, and be, as we are, firmly united in their utmoſt Endeavours to make your Reign happy and glorious, ſhall be our conſtant Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the firſt Day of April, in the Twenty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign, 1749.

Dreſden, April 13, N. S. M. Sternberg, the Auſtrian Envoy, arrived here laſt Night. Count Beſtucheff, the Ruſſian Envoy at this Court, who is now appointed Ambaſſador from the Court of Petersbourg to that of Vienna, was married here laſt Thurſday to the Counteſs of Haubitz. Count de Bene, the Spaniſh Envoy at this Court, ſet out Yeſterday on his Return to Madrid.

Hague, April 18, N. S. A ſolemn Deputation from the Eaſt India Company, compoſed of 32 Deputies, waited the Day before Yeſterday on the Prince Stadtholder, and deliver'd to his Serene Highneſs the Diploma of his Office of Supreme Director and Governor General of their Company.

Leiceſter Houſe, April 5.

This Day the Sieur Wall, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain, had a private Audience of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales; to which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Eſq, Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, April 7, 1749.

NOtice is hereby given, that the Books which are now open at London, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, for receiving the Names of ſuch Officers and private Men lately diſcharged the Land and Sea Service, Artificers, &c. as are deſirous of ſettling in his Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia, upon the Encouragement offered for that Purpoſe, will remain open until Tueſday next, the 11th Inſtant, after which no Perſon will be admitted.

And the ſeveral Commiſſion Officers of the Land and Sea Service, and Surgeons, who have entred their their Names upon the Encouragement offered by his Majesty, are hereby notified to repair to the Office of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, Whitehall, on Tuesday next, the 11th Instant, where they will receive Orders for being admitted with their Families and Effects into the respective Transports wherein they are to embark. And all other Persons who have in the like Manner enter'd their Names, are to repair to the said Office for the like Purpose upon Wednesday the 12th Instant, and the three following Days; and all Persons who are to embark in the River of Thames, are required to hold themselves in Readiness to depart before the 20th Instant, and to attend the publick Notice that will be given of the particular Days when they are to repair to the Tower Wharf, to be carried from thence to the Ships they are to go on board.

That a Ship or Ships will be ready on or before the 25th Instant at Portsmouth, to receive on board such Persons as have entered their Names with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at that Place and Plymouth.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, Thos. Hill, Secretary.

Whitehall, March 28, 1749.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty by John Meech, Sydenham Williams, and William Richards, Esqrs. three of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Dorset, That on Monday the 20th of this Instant March, an anonymous Letter, directed To Will. Templeman, Dorchester, Clerk of the Peace of the County of Dorset, was drop'd, and taken up near the South Gate of the said Town, threatening to murder him the said William Templeman, and to fire the Houses of the said Justices of the Peace, in Case any farther Proceedings were carried on by them against the Persons concerned in Plundering and Carrying away the Cargo and Effects of a Dutch Ship, lately stranded on Portland-Beach in that County; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement, his Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Whitehall, March 30, 1749.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, That on Wednesday the first Day of this Instant March, the Warehouse of Messr. Fullagar and Todd, at the Golden Ball, Billingsgate, was broke open in the Night by one or more Persons, and many Goods, to a large Value, taken thereout; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the above mentioned Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she or they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BEDFORD.

And as a farther Encouragement for the making such Discovery, the said Messr. Fullagar and Todd do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to the Person or Persons who shall apprehend or take any one or more of the Persons concerned in the above Robbery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the said Offenders, or any one or more of them: Or whoever will discover where the said Goods are lodged, so that they may be had again, shall have the like Reward of Twenty Pounds, and so in Proportion for any Part of them.

For Partner and Self,

Stephen Todd.
